Authorities Accused of Carelessness in Death of Greenlee in Apollo Mine

ANOTHER DYING AT HOSPITAL

A coroner's jury empaneled by Coroner S. H. Baum, of Fayette county, conducted an inquest Monday evening at Fayette City into the death of Joseph Greenlee, victim of the Apollo mine explosion January 24, in which 27 other persons were injured, five of whom are now in a Pittsburgh hospital. Responsibility for the accident was placed by the jury on those in authority which examined 13 witnesses under the direction of Coroner Baum and Mine Inspector Harry Phythyon. The verdict rendered at 11 o'clock, after the jury had deliberated an hour, follows:

Joseph Greenlee, of Gillespie, came to his death on the 24th of January, 1916, at Mercy hospital Pittsburgh, Pa., from burns received at the Apollo mines of the Monongahela River Consolidated Coal company, in Fayette county, Pa., due to the explosion of powder. After hearing the evidence, its character and details we believe that this explosion was due to the general carelessness or negligence on the part of those in authority. We recommend that any foreman or employe placed in authority of transportation of explosives shall personally, in every case know that the mining law has been complied with before the trip enters the mine.

The members of the jury were E. D. Bevier, David Rosenberg, L. M. Gilliland, P. J. Johansen, William Ashton and Thomas Young. The following witnesses were examined: Albert Hall, mine foreman; Clyde Elder, dilly rider; Charles Belmar, boss driver; Charles Stitt, motorman; Loe Harris, snapper on motor; William Linn, pumper; Joseph Hetherington, Jr., loader; F. Smith, digger; John Polcheck, loader; Abe Trew, assistant mine foreman; Irwin Brown, dilly engineer; Patrick Hines, Jr., loader; Andy Sutta, loader; George Hines, loader; Charles Cairns, loader.

The inquest was held in the opera house and fully 400 persons were present. The examination of witnesses occupied three hours.

The testimony brought out concerned largely the absence of a wooden box in a powder car from which the explosion originated.

Today it was stated that Charles Dolan was dying at the Mercy hospital at Pittsburgh and members of his family were hurriedly summoned there. He was burned along with Greenlee.

GET-TOGETHER MEETING IS ARRANGED BY CLASS

Arranegments are under way for a get-together meeting of all Methodists, men, women and children at the church Friday evening. The meeting is being arranged by the men's Good Will class of the Sunday school. A program will be rendered and addresses made.

GLOBE FATALITIES PROVEN TO HAVE BEEN ACCIDENTAL

James P. Miller and Ray Davis Inquests Held by Coroner—Heavy Fall of Roofing Described.

Purely accidental were the deaths of James P. Miller, assistant mine foreman and Ray Davis a miner in the Globe mine of the Vesta Coal company near Roscoe last Wednesday. This was the verdict of the coroner's jury sitting in the inquest conducted by Coroner James T. Heffran at the undertaking rooms of Lawrence P. Frye Monday evening.

Six witnesses were heard, their testimony relating to the sort of work the two men were doing and to the manner in which the heavy fall of roofing occurred which caused their death. The two men, with others were timbering the mine when the roof fell. The jury which heard the inquest was composed of John C. McKean, foreman; Allen S. Mansfield, R. C. Robertson, F. O. Balderson, Samuel Pardoe and Logan Wingett.

It is now feared that George Keegan of the two injured when Miller and Davis were killed, will not live, having a broken pelvic bone. Charles Hannen will probably be brought home from the hospital tomorrow.

March 13 will be appeal day for coal companies and the railroads and public service corporations will be heard the next day. These hearings will be at the commissioners' office at Washington. Practically the entire first two weeks of March with the last few days of February will be consumed by the work of hearing appeals.

INCREASE IN THE COUNTY MILLAGE

Commissioners Fix Taxation Rate at 4 3-4 For Ensuing Twelve Month Period

BUDGET SHOWS THE EXPENSES

The county commissioners Monday fixed the county millage for 1916 at four and three-quarter mills, an increase of a mill over 1915, when the millage was three and three-quarter mills. The controller had recommended a four and a half mill levy. The commissioners, in considering the controller's budget, believed he erred in his figuring in the consideration of the receipts for 1916. The controller, they say, did not take into consideration the abatements, which total about $25,000 and the delinquent taxes, which last year totaled $98,000 which makes $123,000 the controller did not consider. The commissioners believe that to take care of the estimated expenditures for the year, as submitted by the controller, a four and three-quarter mill levy is necessary.

Controller T. J. Underwood, in his budget submitted to the commissioners, recommended a millage of four and one-half mills, instead of four and three quarters, as decided on by the commissioners. The controller had figured that the expenses for the current year would be $746,847.50. The controller in recommending an increase in the millage over last year's levy of 3¾ mills took into consideration the fact that the funds had been running short during the past few years. He referred to the necessity of borrowing $50,000 the past year. The controller's statement to the commission is an exhaustive one.

The controller in his budget, stated that a millage of 4½ per cent may seem high, but he stated that before this year's taxes are available it will be necessary to borrow from $200,000 to $225,000 at 5 or 6 per cent interest to meet the demands of the county and the controller feels that the taxpayers would rather stand the higher rate of millage than to stand for the imposition of paying 6 per cent on borrowed money, as has been done in former years and which will have to be done during 1916 for the amount stated above.

The controller has based his estimates for 1916 upon the amounts that were required for 1915, with certain allowances and deductions.

The controller's estimate of the receipts of the county from various sources for 1916 is $257,891.90. Deducting this from the expenditures of the county $(746,847.50) shows that it will be necessary to raise $488,955.60 by taxation. Upon a county valuation of $125,000,000 this means a tax millage of 4 mills, leaving a balance of about $11,000. With a levy of 4½ mills and with the expenditures and receipts running true to the estimates, there will be a balance in the treasury at the end of the year of about $75,000. This is not a large amount to meet contingencies as they may arise, as in 1912 the county suffered a loss of 45 bridges which were washed out by flood, entailing a loss to the county of nearly $100,000; and last year it was necessary to borrow $50,000. It is for such unexpected contingencies that the millage of 4½ should be made.

DEATH FOLLOWS WEEK'S ILLINESS

Mrs. Joseph Beazell Dies at Home in Twilight—Was Widely Known Woman

PROMINENT IN CHURCH WORK

Mrs. Amanda Catherine Beazell, aged 71 years, wife of Joseph Beazell of Twilight, died at her home Monday afternoon, at 2:30 o'clock following an illness of one week, resulting from an attack of pneumonia.

Mrs. Beazell was a well-known woman and held in high esteem by her many acquaintances. She helped to organize the Methodist Episcopal church at Speers and was one of its most active workers. She was, also, active in numerous charitable organizations.

Born in Stark county, Ohio, in 1845, Mrs. Beazell came to this section immediately after her marriage, Mr. and Mrs. Beazell taking up their residence in the house in which she died. She was a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David Lash.

Previous to uniting with the Speers Methodist Episcopal church Mrs. Beazell was a member of the Ebenezer Methodist Episcopal church. The Speers church was organized in 1894.

Besides the husband the following sons and daughters survive: James W. Beazell of Toledo, O.; Frank Beazell and Mrs. James Heffran of Speers; Mrs. Marian Irwin of Elizabeth; Miss Lulu and Isaac Beazell at home; Miss Kathryn Beazell a teacher in the Pittsburg schools and William H. Beazell a member of the First United States cavalry and located at Fort Sheridan, Ill. One brother Horace Lash lives in Cunningham, Kansas.

Mrs. Beazell was one of the best known women of the Monongahela valley and for her good works was known far and wide. Her influence was for the best in life and she worked hard with this end in view of helping those around her.

Funeral services will be held Wednesday morning at 11 o'clock in the Speers Methodist Episcopal church. Interment will be in Howe's cemetery.

SERIOUS LABOR CONDITION PREVAILING IN THE STATE

Too Many Jobs For Number of Men—State Bureau Takes to Use of Telephone to Help.

Resumption of work at blast furnaces, the speeding up of production at coal mines and the demands of the railroads for men have caused what state officials in charge of employment matters consider the most serious condition in regard to labor in years. There have been more applications made to the state's employment agencies in the last three weeks than in any months since they were started. Those in charge of mines and mills have taken to using the long distance telephone instead of writing for help. As fast as names are put down at the agencies employers in the various industries are notified.

Jacob Lightner, chief of the state's employment agencies says the three bureaus have found work for 900 men and have applications on file to take care of a good many more if they only send their names.

PITTSBURGH STEEL ADVANCES WAGES

Ten Per Cent More Money to be Paid Laborers—Other Increases Proportionate

OTHER MILL PAYS ADVANCE

Ten per cent of an advance in wages for laborers and an increase for other employes similar to that declared by competitors recently is effective today in the plants of the Pittsburg Steel company and the Pittsburg Steel Products company at Monessen. The increase will mean an addition of about $28,000 or $30,000 to the monthly payroll of the steel concerns, which will now total about $235,000.

From 4,000 to 4,500 men in the employ of the Pittsburg Steel company and the Products company will be benefitted. The notice which was posted Saturday read that all laborers would be paid at the rate of 22 cents an hour and all other employes paid similarly to the rate of pay in other mills.

The employes of the American Sheet and Tin Plate mill and the Carnegie Hoop mill at Monessen, both United States Steel corporation plants are starting work under their new wage scale today. The Page Woven Wire Fence company made advances throughout different departments about the middle of the month.

Council Will Meet.

The borough council is scheduled to meet in regular monthly session tonight but it will have to get along without the services of its efficient clerk, Ira L. Nickeson who has been seriously ill at his home on Meadow avenue.

REMONSTRANCES NOT NUMEROUS

General Protest Against But Three Retailers Applying for License

LICENSE COURT NEXT WEEK

The smallest number of remonstrances filed for years against applications to sell liquor were left with the clerk of courts Monday afternoon. It was the last day.

Of the 42 retail applications on file there are general remonstrances against but three. They are Peter and Susanna Lazzari, who apply for a license at the former Lazzari hotel, Monongahela, where there has been no license for several months, following the death of Louis Lazzari, former owner of the property; Charles G. Simon, refused last year at Stockdale and an applicant for the Diamond hotel at Monongahela, which has no license at present and Davidson & Klein, proprietors of the hotel at Marianna.

There are specifications against William Coulson at Roscoe. It is claimed he has sold in greater quantities than allowed a retailer, that he has sold to men of known intemperate habits and that he uses liquor to such an extent himself that he is an improper person to hold a license.

There are over 30 numerously signed remonstrances against Harry B. Hayden who asks for a wholesale license at Monongahela. He was refused last year and for two years prior to that time. Giving as their reasons that the deal for the [illegible] which they expected to use miscarried, Androw Mucka and Michale Redic have withdrawn their application for a wholesale license at Donora.

License court will be convened on next Monday before Judge McIlvaine. The anti-liquor people will likely raise the question of necessity as to a number of the applicants, particularly those from Stockdale, where the licenses were all refused last year, and from Elrama, refused last year. At Finleyville where two applicants seek license the fight will likely be, if any is to be granted there, not to increase the number. Last year the license was refused John J. Zwick and given Elizabeth Hayden now dead. The applicant for the Hayden license is James E. Hayden. Zwick applies again. It will be up to the court to decide who is to be given the license there, if any at all is granted.

EVANGELISTIC MEETINGS STARTED BY THE BAPTISTS

With Rev. Walter M. Corll, pastor of the Mt. Lebanon Baptist church as the evangelist, a two weeks' series of evangelistic meetings was started at the First Baptist church Monday evening. Rev. W. G. Carl had charge of the forepart of the services and then Rev. Corll preached on the theme, "How to Build a Church." Tonight services will be held and Rev. Corll will again preach. The services are being conducted under a plan arranged by the Pittsburg Baptist association.

SAVINGS AND SUCCESS

On the question of savings and success, as generally spoken of, the Saturday Evening Post has the following to say:

Deposits in the savings bank of New York increased last year. At the same time savings' deposits in the postoffice multiplied by three. In the fiscal year, the increase of postal savings' deposits the country over exceed fifty per cent, the number of depositors rising about half a million and the amount on deposit to sixty-five million dollars.

Of course this was no injury to other savings' banks, but, on a broad view, a benefit to them. Mainly the postal banks have applied to depositors who would have responded less readily or not at all to the appeal of other banks. And there should be an appeal to reach everybody in the nation who can save. The elaboration of the system in France, for example, is amazing. A man is offered almost as many different ways of saving his money as there are ways of spending it, and the saving offer is made about as persistently as the spending offer.

The United States is thriftier than is commonly given credit for being, because statistics most frequently quoted do not give all savings' deposits, and because a vast deal of saving goes on outside of savings institutions. Yet it does not live up to its opportunities by a long way. One of the country's ablest business men said not long ago that any one could tell whether he was going to succeed or fail by his ability to save. If he could not save he could not succeed. At any rate, inability to save, for a man with an income above the bread line and no unusual ill luck, implies a lack of self-control that is not conductive to success.

Like nearly everything else, it is a matter of habit; and, with a little determination to begin with, the right habit is as easily formed as the wrong one. Try it this year.

SHIFTS MADE IN THE OFFICE OF RECORDER

Slight changes have been made in the recorder's office in the court house. The large counter which faced the entrance to the office has been placed against the wall to the right of the north entrance, giving persons desiring to examine the records of the office better ingress to this section of the office. The two counters to the left of the north entrance have been placed contiguous so that the clerks on the inside of this part of the office will not be troubled with persons having business there who frequently go to the inside, scarcely realizing that their room is preferable to their company.

CONGRESSMAN TEMPLE TO BE CANDIDATE FOR RE-ELECTION

Congressman Henry W. Temple will be a candidate for re-election from the congressional district having announced this fact before leaving for Washington Monday night to resume his work in congress after a brief stay at home.

Dr. Temple was elected last fall to fill the unexpired term of the late Congressman William M. Brown of New Castle. Dr. Temple won out over John A. Elliott at the September primaries for the Republican nomination by a plurality of 4,000 and was elected in the fall by the largest plurality ever given a Republican in the 24th district, having over 18,000 more votes than his Democratic opponent, Mr. Gibson.

It is the consensus of opinion among the political leaders of the 24th district that Dr. Temple will have no opposition for the nomination in May. Some of his strongest supporters today are those who opposed him at the primaries less than a year ago.

SCIENCE DISPLAYED IN PERRY-MILLER MATCH

As anticipated one of the finest boxing shows that has been given here this season was presented Monday evening by the Charleroi Boxing club at the skating rink. The featuring attraction was a match between Jim Perry one of the cleverest and most scientific boxers of the state and Bull Miller, a Monessen man of unusual ability. This pair fought six rounds with Perry having a shade the better of the argument at the conclusion. It was Perry's science that told the most. Had the bout been less of a scientific engagement probably Miller would have carried off all honors.

In the semi-final bout Battling Sherbine of Duquesne boxed six rounds to draw with Eddie Gray of Steubenville. In the latter part of the engagement Sherbine was weakened on account of the lack of training. However his previous good showing in the first part of the mill counted heavily in his favor. Gray fought hard and stuck to it doggedly.

Joe Larue of Charleroi ended the hopes of Johnny Todd of Donora in the first round of their bout, ending them with a stout jab to the jaw that laid out Todd until the count was made.

Bart McGinnis of Roscoe and Mike Kotsic of Monessen indulged in a "regular" fight in the first event, it being a match with plenty of trimmings. Kotsic was laid out cold by McGinnis in the second round.

The crowd attending the affair was large. William Riley of Monessen refferred all bouts.

SHOPS MUST BE RUN CAREFULLY

Instructions Along Health Lines Are Given by State Department of Labor

DAILY CLEANING NECESSARY

Bakers are warned against the dangers peculiar to their occupation in a pamphlet entitled "Timely Hints for Bakers" issued today by Commissioner John Price Jackson of the Department of Labor and Industry.

"Co-operate with your employer in keeping the bakeshop clean," advises Commisisoner Jackson to Pennsylvania bakers. "Daily cleanups and frequent scrubbings of the shops are absolutely necessary.

"Do not go into the open air direct from the bake room or while overheated unless properly protected from the cold. Sudden exposure of this kind frequently leads to pneumonia or rheumatism.

"Flour dust irritates the lungs and increases your chances for developing tuberculosis. Handle flour and empty bags carefully. Do not shake out empty bags in the workroom.

"If you have a sore on your hand or arm, quit work until it is well. Handling dough, bread and tools lengthens the time for it to heal and may endanger patrons.

"Bakers ofter have pains in their feet and legs. If you have this trouble, consult a doctor. It is probably flat foot and not rheumatism and the advice of a doctor should be carefully followed.

"Do not clean any machine while it is in motion. Many serious injuries have resulted from disobeying this rule.

"The Safety Standards for Bakeshops published by the Industrial Board of the Pennsylvania Department of Labor and Industry refers to bakers as follows:

"'No person suffering from a communicable disease shall be employed. Persons working in bakeshops shall be subject to medical inspection under the supervision of the Department of Labor and Industry. Outer clothing used by bakeshop workers when on duty shall be of washable material (preferably white) and shall be kept clean at all times. The smoking, snuffing or chewing of tobacco or snuff, the scraping of hands and arms with a knife to remove dough, the open blowing of the nose, expectoration, wetting the fingers in the mouth and all other insanitary practices are forbidden.'"

FRICK COMPANY WILL PAY HIGHEST WAGES IN HISTORY

Advance Declared in Connellsville Region—Independents Following Lead Established.

Wages of practically every coke drawer, coal digger and allied craftsmen in the Connellsville region will be increased approximately 10 per cent in accordance with a notice posted at all of the plants of the H. C. Frick Coke company announcing a new scale which becomes effective today. About 25,000 men are affected by the Frick advance. Three of the leading independent companies notified their employes that they will enjoy the same wages as paid Frick employes. These companies are: W. J. Rainey; employing 1,200 men; Oliver & Snyder Steel company, employing 1,100 men, and Washington Coal and Coke company, employing 1,000 men.

It is expected that other merchant operators of the region will follow the lead of these larger companies and will immediately make an adjustment of their wage scales. The Connellsville Coke company and the Newcomer Coke company, both comparatively small operations anticipated the Frick increase and advanced wages three weeks ago.

Some of the wage scales to be paid by the smaller operators will exceed even the new Frick scale which supplants the scale which has prevailed since April 1, 1912. The new Frick scale is to be the highest ever paid in this region.

PLANS MATURINE FOR COUNTY ASSOCIATION IN SCHOOL ATHLETICS

Adoption of the constitution and by-laws of an executive committee, were important steps taken at a meeting of the Principals' Board and Teachers at the county seat toward the formation of the proposed Washington County Interscholastic Athletic association.

The constitution and by-laws of the association as adopted by the principals will be printed and submitted to the various high schools of the county to be ratified by them. The executive committee will take steps immediately to secure the ratification. Schools desiring to be listed as charter members of the organization must pass upon the constitution and by-laws by March 1.

The executive committee appointed Saturday will stand until the first meeting of the council of the association, which will be next fall, during the teachers' institute. The membership of the council will be formed by principal and one other representative from each high school. Two members are allowed, so that athletic directors will be able to participate and present their views.

The executive committee did not organize, but will do so at the next meeting, a time for which has not been set. Under the constitution and by-laws the executive committee is the governing body. It may decide and award championship honors in any branch of athletic and take whatever action it deems just in all disputes.

At the meeting the county was divided into 10 districts and a representative from each of these districts is to form the membership of the executive committee. Prof. T. L. Pollock was named for the Charleroi district.

PAROLED AND DRUNK ALL IN 40 MINUTES

Court Refuses to Take Seriously The Story of Monongahelian Who Says He Forgot.

Intoxicated within 40 minutes after he was paroled and released from the jail, Samuel Applegate of Monongahela, was before the court Monday and fined $1 and costs and given six months in the workhouse. He has learned that the court was in earnest last week when it warned him against violating the conditions imposed on him, when he was allowed his freedom.

Applegate, it was learned, left the jail at noon. At 20 minutes before 1 o'clock a report reached the court that Applegate was drunk. Probation Officer Mitchell endeavored to locate the man, but he had boarded a car in Tylerdale for Monongahela. There he continued to drink, landed in the lockup, whence he was brought back by Officer Mitchell.

Applegate was very penitent Monpathy to waste on him. The defendant's story was that he had eaten a big meal the evening before he was arrested, was not well the next morning and upon the suggestion of a friend had taken a drink or two of brandy for his stomach's sake. He remembered nothing more until he found himself in the lockup. He said it was only "pop" he drank before leaving Washington. It was learned that Applegate, before leaving Washington had visited a club where liquor is sold. The court told the defendant that it had looked up his record and he had been up a number of times, all on account of drinking. Applegate, in this latest charge was held for assaulting his mother.

RULE TO SHOW WHY LIENS OF COUNTY SHOULD NOT BE MADE

In the suit of the county against W. A. Lindsey, rule to show cause why lien for county taxes entered against defendant's real estate in this county should not be stricken from the record, as improvidently entered, the court has handed down a rather important decision. The court, after reviewing the tax liens, laws, decides that the rule should be discharged, that the liens is a valid lien and if the property were sold at a judicial sale, that the lien would be paid out of the proceeds before execution or any other judgement. This the court says would not be the case, provided the act of 1901 and its amendments were wholly inoperative. Involved in the action were various acts of assembly. Lands in Pennsylvania, said the court, were divided in two classes—first, what is known as unseated lands and the second, what is known as seated lands. In the question before the court in this action, it had [illegible] do with seated lands.
